Product news from ABM:
Universally footrest system for custombikes

D-Breisach a.R. / 18th May 2017 Tinkerer bear in mind: ABM now offers a new footrest system which is universally to use and adjustable.

Particularly when converting an old motorcycle to a modern custombike the footrest system often causes problems: complicated system and clumsy, not customizable, simply not suitable. Thus, ABM has revived the old idea of an universally footrest system.

Details at a glance

- Ideal for an individual bike conversion / customizing
- Extentable with many other parts
- Parts in retro look, glass bead blasted, silver or black anodized
- Existing of brake & shift lever, reversing lever, axle made of high-grade steel
- Angle of reversing lever individual adjustable
- Different distances from the frame realizable
- Rate: EUR 189,00 incl. VAT
- Ideally combinable with ABM footrests called rGrip or rGripEvo

This new footrest system is now available at the English ABM webshop → ab-m.de
